CHINA Town Hall is a national conversation about China that provides Americans across the United States and beyond the opportunity to discuss issues in the relationship with leading experts. CHINA Town Hall includes a two-part program: (1) an interactive webcast featuring a panel-style format. George Stephanopoulos will moderate this year's webcast discussion; he will be joined by NCUSCR President Stephen Orkins and two to three other experts and (2) a local town hall-style discussion, with the goal of encouraging community members to talk candidly about the bilateral relationship.

CHINA Town Hall is a national day of programming on China involving locations throughout the United States.

This event is FREE and open to the public.
